

Security Council members find common ground on Iraq Page 7

STARS AND STRIPES®

Dolphins deployed to help in Iraq
Sunday magazine

How did your prep football teams fare?
Page 40

Veterans revisit Italian war zone
Page 4

Volume 62, No. 150 © EPSS 2003 G SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 2003 50¢

Fallujah deaths may have been avoidable

Iraqi official: Inability to communicate with GIs led to friendly-fire incident

Page 6

TERRY BOYD/Stars and Stripes

On Saturday, flying the old Iraqi flag from Saddam Hussein's regime, angry residents of Fallujah, Iraq, surround the casket of the first of eight Iraqi police officers to be buried after an accidental shootout with American soldiers on Friday.

HOME On the FRONT

One in an occasional series of stories about what's going on at home while the troops are deployed

AFN helps commanders, community communicate

Page 3

KEVIN DOUGHERTY/Stars and Stripes

Wednesday mornings start earlier now for Lt. Col. Amy Ehmann, commander of the 414th Base Support Battalion in Hanau, Germany. As the battalion's new commander, Ehmann has assumed an unusual task for a military officer: co-hosting a weekly two-hour radio program.

Composite